Moroccan salad with freekeh (vegan)

Method

Cook freekeh in a pot of boiling water for 25 to 30 minutes until tender. Drain, rinse under cold water and set aside in a salad bowl.

Finely chop the Turkish apricots into threads and place into a non-stick fry pan with the slivered almonds, sunflower seeds, pepitas, pistachios and pine nuts and gently dry roast until golden (around one to two minutes). Remove from heat, ensuring they do not burn, and set aside to cool.

Into the freekeh add the currants, whole cranberries and $\frac{3}{4}$ of the pomegranate seeds. Stir through with one tablespoon of olive oil and the sea salt.

Chop up the parsley and mix in. Once nut/seed mixture has cooled, stir through the freekah mixture with the whole almonds. Drizzle on the pomegranate molasses and olive oil and combine.

Just before serving add the rose petals and mix in.

Top with the remaining pomegranate seeds, a sprinkle of rose petals, pistachios and cranberries.
