- 2 blood oranges, peeled and segmented

Red quinoa, beetroot & blood orange salad (GF)

- Juice from half of an orange
- Course sea salt
- Extra-virgin olive oil

To finish

- Big handful sprouts/micro greens
- Handful chopped parsley
- ¼ cup toasted hazelnuts, chopped

METHOD

Chimichurri

Place chopped parsley, garlic, salt, chili flakes, vinegar and olive oil into a food processor or upright blender and blend, scraping down the sides until thoroughly combined. Taste and adjust seasoning if needed. Transfer to a lidded jar and refrigerate until ready to use.

Salad

Preheat oven to 200°C. Wrap beets in foil, prick all over with a fork and coat in olive oil. Secure foil in a packet, place on a rimmed baking sheet and bake for one hour, or until tender.

Remove from oven and allow to cool. Once cool, slip beet skins off, rinse and pat to dry. Cut into eighths then slice into small chunks. Set aside.

Place rinsed quinoa, along with a big pinch of salt, into a saucepan and cook according to directions on packet. Once cooked, remove from heat and set aside.

In a large bowl, combine beets and quinoa, add orange segments, chimichurri sauce, and orange juice. Toss to combine.

Serve warm, topped with sprouts, chopped parsley, and chopped hazelnuts.
