Whilst quinoa is on the stove, place the tomatoes on a baking tray and place in a 180°C oven for 15 minutes.

Next, cut the halloumi into one-cm thick slices and place in a non-stick fry pan (only grease if necessary). Fry halloumi until golden on each side then take off the heat.

To assemble the salad: place the quinoa, rocket, halloumi and zest of one lemon into a bowl. Tear the olives into halves, throwing away the pits and leaving only the flesh in the salad.

Mix the dressing together in a small bowl and place on the salad. Toss everything together until well combined then finish by putting the roasted sweet truss tomatoes on top.

Serve salad with lemon wedges, extra balsamic and olive oil on the side.
